

Should a sped student should participate fully in Tier 1 instruction and can/should they receive their intervention from the sped teacher in a pullout setting?

Students who receive special education services should receive their core instruction in the Tier 1 general education classroom and their intervention in a pullout setting from the special education teacher.

Unique solution ID: #1107

Author: Jeff Baxter

Last update: 2015-10-09 20:42